

FOOD & DRINK News

GET A GRILLING!

Weber® has expanded its range of Grill Academy cookery courses at The Food Hub, located in Kenton Hall Estate, Suffolk, channeling this year's biggest food trends.

With cookery courses targeting grill enthusiasts of all abilities, the new courses will run throughout the summer and include a choice of Barbecue Classics, Weber® Essentials, Seafood Essentials and American Barbecue.

From learning the basics of barbecue classics to the art of hot smoking, there are a range of courses to suit all abilities. The 'American Barbecue' course takes place on 7 August and 3 September, while 'Barbecue Classics' will be held on 4 September.

Those looking to expand their barbecuing ability from the fare of sausages and burgers can take part in the Weber Essentials course*, which takes place 27 August and 11 September.

www.grillacademy.co.uk

FLAGSHIP FOODIE EXTRAVAGANZA EVENT RETURNS FOR FOURTH YEAR

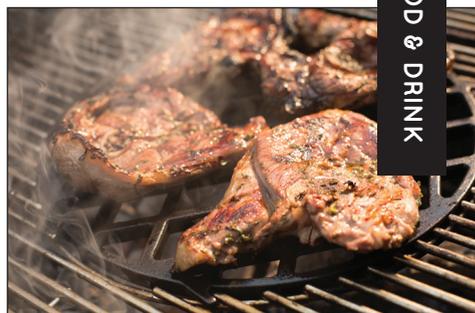

On Sunday 4 September, the East of England's family charity, Ormiston Families, will once again host Walk with a Fork at Helmingham Hall estate.

The charity's flagship event, which sees attendees taking on a seven-mile amble around the countryside, will feature foodie delicacies from some of the region's local producers at stops throughout the journey. The Suffolk Walk with a Fork event has been sponsored by a number of local organisations and producers including; Aldeburgh Food and Drink Festival, Aspell Suffolk Cyder, Suffolk Salami Co., Musk's Sausages, The Fish Hut, Steve and Rebecca of Somerleyton Catering and many more.

Proceeds from Walk with a Fork will be used to support Ormiston Families' work providing services to support children and young people across East Anglia. Tickets are £20 per person and children under 5 go for free. Dogs are welcome.

www.ormiston-families.eventbrite.com

FOOD & DRINK

Become a BBQ king at The Food Hub

Afternoon tea at Hotel Felix

CHILDREN'S AFTERNOON TEA

Everyone loves a tea party, and it's the perfect meal to keep little ones entertained, which is why Hotel Felix in Cambridge has launched a brand new afternoon tea experience for children.

To celebrate the start of the summer holidays, the hotel has created the indulgent 'School's Out Summer Afternoon Tea', which will be available from 18 July to 30 August.

Children can indulge on tasty finger sandwiches, cakes, frozen yogurt and mocktails. Highlights on the menu include fruit and marshmallow kebab with a chocolate dipping sauce and strawberry popping candy cheesecake. Junior guests can choose from a selection of milkshakes and mocktails including a coke float, Cinderella Mocktail or Very Berry Milkshake.

Served between 2.30pm and 5pm, Monday to Friday, and 3pm and 5pm on Saturdays and Sundays, the 'School's Out Afternoon Tea' is priced £9.95 per child. Adults enjoy a 15% discount on the full 'Felix Afternoon Tea' with every 'School's Out Afternoon Tea' purchased (the reduced price is £14.95 per adult). For more information, visit www.hotelfelix.co.uk